

In Music, Arts, and Entertainment, We Don't Play Second Fiddle

The Appalachian appeal is everywhere in Ashe County – in music, the arts, and the food

- » Magnet for music lovers: Merlefest, Appalachian Summer Festival, local concerts, and jam sessions.
- » Galleries and artists galore: explore murals, sculptures, local arts, and crafts.
- » Cheese and cheers: get a fill of craft breweries, wineries, and unique eateries.

Now Let's Get to Business

We know what it takes to grow a thriving business. We have the people and place to take your business to the next level.

To discover more go to growashe.com

Ashe County Industrial Park

Here's the big picture about Ashe County:

- » Available sites – from 5 to 41.8 acres
- » Thriving advanced manufacturing with trained workforce
- » Low cost of doing business
- » Gigabyte-capable broadband
- » Access to renowned higher education institutions
- » Superior quality of life

Cathy P. Barr, MBA, NCCED
 Director Economic Development
 (336) 846-5535
cathy.barr@ashecountygov.com

Largest producer/grower of Christmas trees

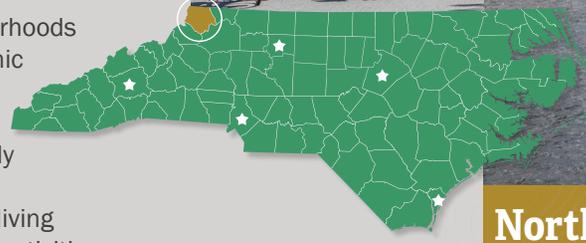

HERE'S WHAT WE DO FOR

Parks, Hiking, Camping, Biking, Paddling, Fishing and More!

LET'S ZOOM IN ON HOW WE DO BUSINESS

Ashe County is one of the best places to raise a family and run a business.

- » Safe neighborhoods atop the scenic Blue Ridge Mountains
- » Family-friendly communities
- » Four-season living
- » Recreational activities for people of all ages

ACCESSIBLE

- » Local airport
- » Close to major interstates
- » Charlotte International Airport 2 hours

North Carolina's

'COOLEST CORNER'

And Here's Why...

- » The Blue Ridge Parkway
- » The New River
- » Canoe/Kayak Outfitters
- » New River State Park, Mount Jefferson State Park, Mountain-to-Sea Trail
- » Two 18-hole Golf Courses - Mountain Aire and Jefferson Landing
- » Nearby Ski Resorts in Boone

